

Lt. Governor Becky Skillman's
2012 Celebration
of Hoosier Women Artists

Indiana Lt. Governor Becky Skillman announced the 11 winners of her sixth annual Celebration of Hoosier Women Artists competition. The contest is conducted annually in March to coincide with National Women's History Month.

"I have loved seeing these works of art every day for the last six years," Lt. Governor Skillman said. "This group of winners will continue to make the Statehouse even more lovely than it already is."

Dr. Jean Robertson, professor of Art History at IUPUI's Herron School of Art and Design, assisted with the judging of the 110 submissions. Lt. Gov. Skillman ultimately selected the 11 winners, after considering feedback from her staff and Dr. Robertson.

The winning pieces will be on display in the lobby of the Lt. Governor's office and on the Lt. Governor's website through the end of 2012.
